

The screenshot shows a web browser window with a browser bar at the top containing navigation icons and the address 'http://'. The main content area is titled 'Stocks' and features a line graph representing stock price over time. The graph shows a fluctuating line with several peaks and troughs. Below the graph, there are tabs for 'Facebook' and 'Twitter', and a user profile for 'Eiko Batista'. The social media feed displays two tweets: one from 'Masina Hoagway' mentioning a meeting and another from 'Eiko Batista Oficial' mentioning a presentation. To the right of the feed, there are two news snippets: one about a company similar to Eiko Batista and another about Eiko Batista's company conversion.
